NOTICE OF EXTENSION TO SUBMIT COMMENTS ON PROPOSED DETERMINATION OF REVENUE REQUIREMENTS (California Code of Regulations Title 23 Section 510 et seq.)

The California Department of Water Resources ("the Department" or "DWR") hereby provides notice that it is extending the period of time up to and including August 14, 2003, for members of the public and interested parties to submit comments on the July 17, 2003 issuance of DWR's Proposed Determination of Revenue Requirements for 2004. The purpose of this extension is to provide interested persons additional time to submit comments. DWR will consider any comments only if the comments satisfy the requirements of section 515 of title 23 of the California Code of Regulations, which are summarized below.

The Department intends to provide a separate notice of significant additional material in connection with the review of the 2004 Proposed Determination of Revenue Requirements, which material includes but is not limited to the following: (1) the Department's un-audited cash and operating results through June 30, 2003; (2) Gas Supply Plans of the investor owned utilities as approved by the California Public Utilities Commission; and (3) other information supporting the current status of the Department's power purchase program. The Department intends to issue this notice of significant additional material and make additional materials available for inspection no later than Wednesday, August 6, 2003.

Pursuant to section 512(d) of title 23 of the California Code of Regulations, this notice of extension to submit comments is being provided via electronic mail to those persons who received the original notice by electronic mail and by U.S. Mail to every person who has filed a request for notice. This notice is also posted on the Department's web site (www.water.ca.gov).

To be considered comments must be received at either of the following addresses by 5:00 P.M. on August 14, 2003:

Mailing address: Department of Water Resources

California Energy Resources Scheduling Division

3310 El Camino Avenue, Suite 120

Sacramento, CA 95821-9001 Attention: Jeannie S. Lee, Esq.

E-mail address: jslee@water.ca.gov

Comments must satisfy the following requirements, as specified in section 515 of title 23 of the California Code of Regulations:

A comment must be in typewritten form and must be clear and permanently legible.

A comment must identify the determination that is the subject of the comment by referencing the deadline for submitting comments.

A comment must be signed. Comments submitted on behalf of a business or organization must be signed by a person authorized to comment on behalf of the business or organization, must include the name and title of the signatory, the date of signing, the signatory's business address, and the signatory's business telephone number. Comments submitted through electronic mail will be considered by DWR only if an original, signed copy of the comment is received by DWR within three working days after the receipt of the electronic-mail comment.

A signature on submitted testimony certifies that the signer has read the document and knows its contents; that to the signer's best knowledge, information, and belief, formed after diligent inquiry, the facts are true as stated; that any legal contentions are warranted by existing law or a good faith argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law; that the testimony is not tendered for any improper purpose; and that the signer has full power and authority to sign the document.

No documents or records submitted as testimony which purport to be statements of fact shall be considered by DWR unless the documents or records have been certified under penalty of perjury by the person preparing or in charge of preparing them as being true and correct.
